

Career Webinar Series 2020

Wednesday 4 March

Advice from Engineering Leaders

In this edition of 'Advice from Engineering Leaders', we speak with six senior-level Engineering leaders to hear about their journeys to the top, and get advice on how the next generation of leaders can make the jump.

Click here to register

Wednesday 1 April

Boosting your Employability

Standing out from the crowd is essential if you're looking to secure an engineering role as an early-career engineer. We discuss easy steps that any engineer can take to separate themselves from the pack in the eyes of employers.

Click here to register

Wednesday 6 May

Advice from an Engineering Leader

We speak with Mark Pettigrew, the Regional Director - Network Rail Consulting (Australia & New Zealand) to hear about his leadership journey, and to discover the advice that he feels future leaders should be following today.

Click here to register

Wednesday 3 June

Building a Career Plan

Planning is essential to success in any career. In this installment of 'New Skills' we dive into building a career plan to help early-career engineers take meaningful steps in their career goals, no matter what they might be.

Click here to register

Wednesday 1 July

Industry Insights

What does the day-to-day life of a professional engineer actually look like? That's the question we aim to answer as we explore the workplaces, roles and challenges of early-career engineers from around the country.

Click here to register

Wednesday 5 August

Industry Insights

What does the day-to-day life of a professional engineer actually look like? That's the question we aim to answer as we explore the workplaces, roles and challenges of early-career engineers from around the country.

Click here to register

Wednesday 2 September

Managing Projects and Deadlines

You've got the technical skills, but managing a project can be an entirely different matter! We explore tricks and tips on how to manage multiple projects, stakeholders and priorities to ensure that projects are delivered accurately, and on time.

Click here to register

Wednesday 7 October

Advice from an Engineering Leader

We speak with a senior engineering leader to discuss their journey to the top, where they see the future of engineering, and the advice which they feel the next generation of senior engineers needs to hear.

Click here to register

Wednesday 4 November

Industry Insights

What does the day-to-day life of a professional engineer actually look like? That's the question we aim to answer as we explore the workplaces, roles and challenges of early-career engineers from around the country.

Click here to register

Wednesday 2 November

Advice from an Engineering Leader

We speak with a senior engineering leader to discuss their journey to the top, where they see the future of engineering, and the advice which they feel the next generation of senior engineers needs to hear.

Click here to register

Connect with us to find out about upcoming news and events.

frontier.engineersaustralia.org.au/careerwebinars
Members can view all webinars online once they have been released.

Your career.
Perfectly engineered.

frontier.engineersaustralia.org.au/membership